My name is _____. Soon I will go to school.

A grown-up will take me there. We will find my classroom.

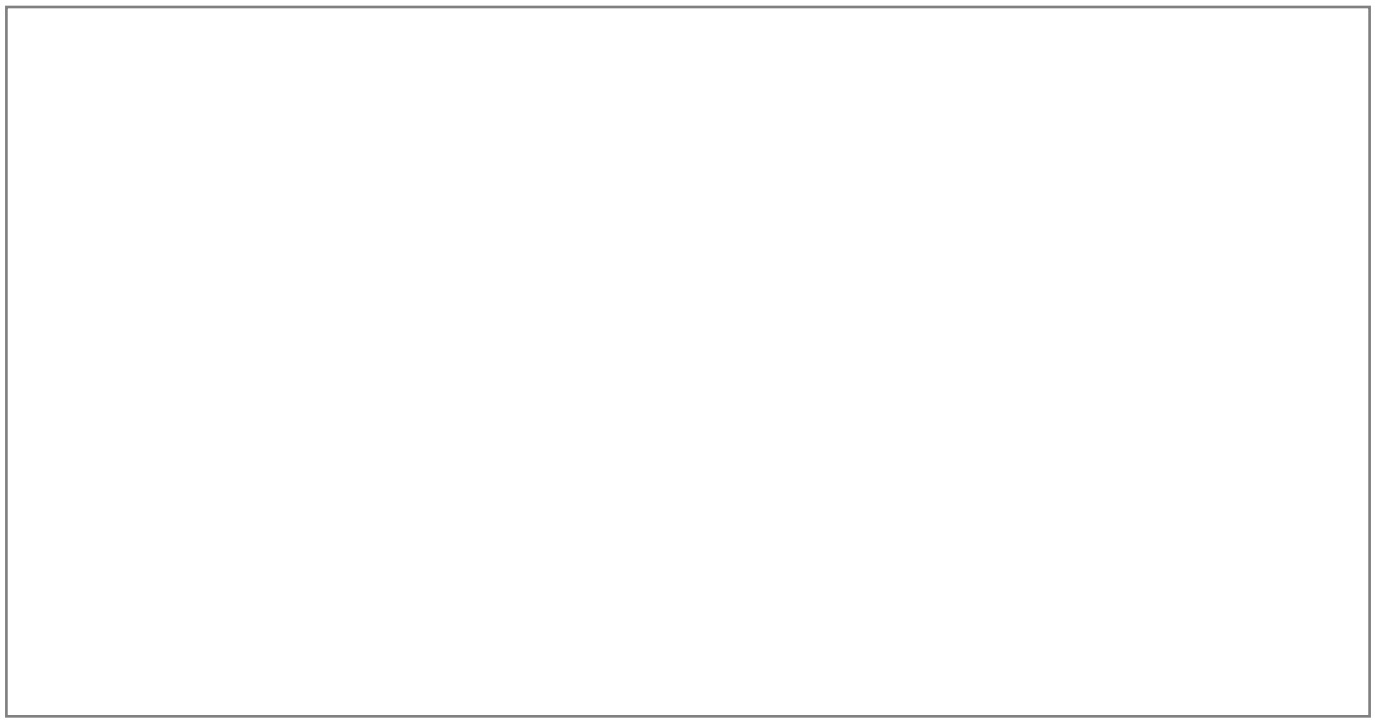
There will be a teacher and other children. Some of them may be new too.



The room may be noisy at times. I can tell the teacher if it is too loud.

I will have a place for my coat and my bag.

There will be time to learn, time to play and time to eat.

I may miss home. That is okay, and it can get easier.

At the end of the day, a grown-up will come to get me.
